SAINT JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

South Bend, Indiana

Conducted by the Sisters of the Holy Cross

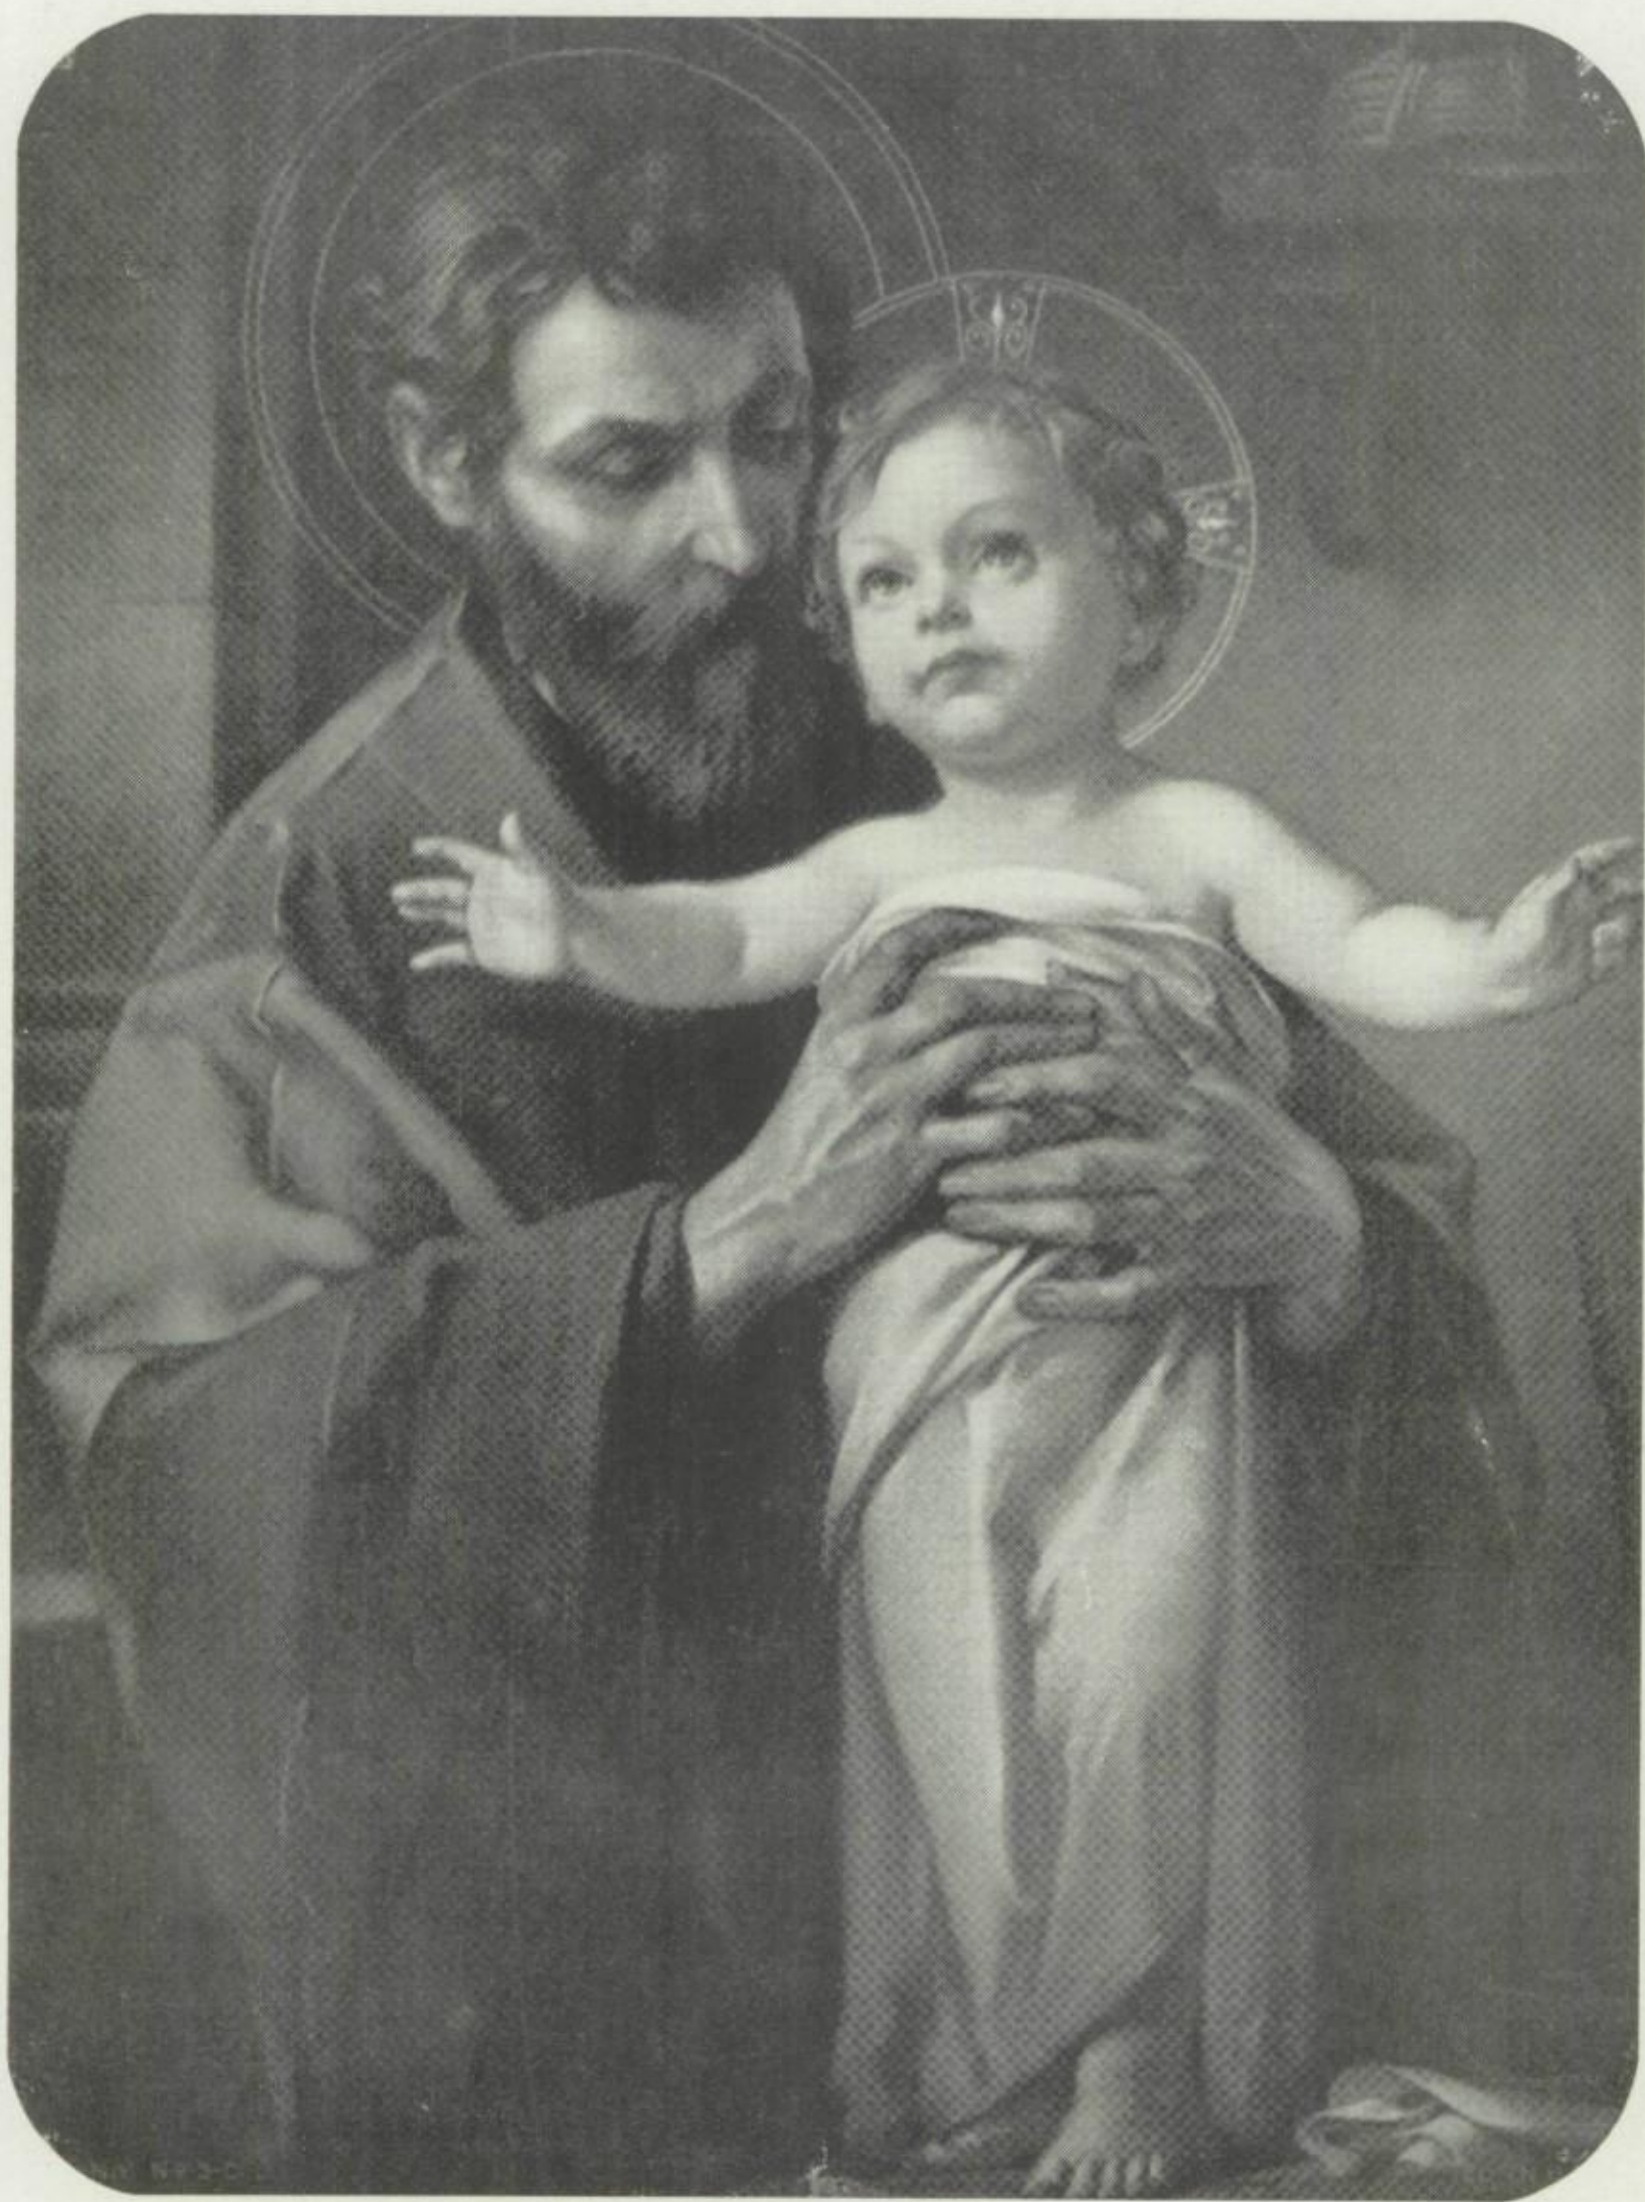

Dedication . . .

We, the Class of 1953, humbly and gratefully dedicate this yearbook to Saint Joseph. In our four years at the Academy we have come to love and cherish him and the two persons with whom he was so intimately associated, the Infant Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary.

We hope that Saint Joseph will be our example in patience, obedience, prudence, and our model in labor. We pray to him for the sick, for the afflicted, and for a happy death. We ask him to be our father, our protector, and our guide to salvation. We beg that he grant us that we may obtain a greater purity of heart and a love of the Holy Family.

"Saint Joseph, Our Patron, have each of us always in thy keeping that following thine example, and borne up by thy strength we may be able to live holily, die happily, and so enter into the everlasting bliss of heaven. Amen."

Dearest Joan

Dearest Joan

Since I can't think of anything wicked to say about you, I guess I'll have to make up some complimentary things to say:

First of all, I've always admired you on the ball field: you are an excellent pitcher (for the Sophs).

Secondly, your baking is simply out of this universe. (I still would like to taste that salad concoction of yours - the one you made with ^{on} ice-cream bar.)

Thirdly, You are an A. plus student in shorthand (But only when we are in 7th period history)

In conclusion, you are a wonderful person(?) to know... if you like that type. Remember me always and forever.

Yours tell we get a decent translation of Cicero's Orations,

Esther

Dear —
By the way, what kind of work I want something for you but none I don't. It just with you good luck in every thing you endeavour, especially in Art. II.

Dear Joan,

Bay oh bay with Esther and I coaching you at first base you're sure not to make the big leagues.

Keep slammung those homers and

Don't forget I'll always be there rooting for you.

Dear Joan,...

I'm glad to have had as my best

comrade the home-

run queen of the S.J.A.

softball team. In all our undertakings

especially our biggest decision. God bless and help you always.

Love and prayers.
